Overview of Eustace High School Spanish program

Eustace ISD offers Spanish I, II, and III at the high school level.

The recommended graduation plan requires successful completion of Spanish I and II. The distinguished plan requires Spanish I, II, and III.

Fundamentals of Foreign Language Study

Foreign language acquisition involves a combination of communication skills such as listening, reading, writing, and speaking practice. Our primary goal is to promote communication by developing these skills and giving our students the opportunity to practice them in a classroom setting. We strongly encourage the students to apply their Spanish language skills in their personal lives by interacting with native speakers and to become aware of the Spanish language commonly found in their environment. Fluency in a second language is achieved when that language becomes part of a student's life beyond the classroom setting.

By analyzing another language and comparing it to the native tongue, students become more aware of the structure and internal logic of both languages, and of the similarities and differences in languages.

By examining another culture, students are able to analyze differences and similarities between cultures, thereby enhancing their appreciation and knowledge of their own society as well as promoting cultural sensitivity.

Spanish II classes review and expand on the vocabulary and concepts taught in Spanish I, and Spanish III explores more complex grammatical structure while continuing to expand vocabulary.
